

Land the Next GREAT JOB!

*"It can be more heroic
to be willing to act
in the absence of certainty than to refuse to act without absolute certainty."*

*– Gregg Levoy
from his book Callings*

Chip has helped clients overcome some of the most challenging problems faced by those thrust into a career transition through a corporate downsizing, performance issue, or simply a desire to switch careers. He has helped clients:

- Negotiate better severance packages when faced with the loss of their job
- Negotiate the best possible compensation package when landing their new job
- Identify a new career to pursue and portray skills as a benefit to potential employers
- Develop a strategy to land a job more quickly

“If I wanted a career coach for myself or for a dear family member or friend, I could think of no one better than Chip Conlin....He is diplomatic while being insightful; caring while truthful; observant and smart....” – Kate W.

TRANSITIONING

Are you:

- The victim of downsizing?
- Returning to the workforce after a break?
- At a career crossroads?

Whether you're currently unemployed, or employed, we will put together a plan of action that works best for you. Depending on your situation we may start with an assessment of your skills, experiences, interests to determine how to best position yourself for a new job. Or it may be a more urgent matter of how to prepare for an interview that came up suddenly.

CHANGING CAREERS

Are you:

- Looking to move from corporate to non-profit?
- At a company that has been purchased?
- In a career that is becoming obsolete?

After a full career in a particular industry, the desire to transition into another type of organization and job becomes not only appealing, but in many cases a necessity, given changes in the job market. Many professionals have had successful careers in a particular industry, only to lose their jobs as their industry retrenches, moves to a new location, or goes out of business.

SENIOR EXECUTIVES

Are you:

- Facing a company merger?
- At a firm where experience is not valued?
- In an industry that is changing rapidly?

In a world of mergers and acquisitions senior executives face the loss of their jobs and the challenges of finding other positions at a comparable level of responsibility and compensation. After a long career these executives may be seen as “overqualified,” “overpriced,” and lacking the newer technical skills in their respective industries.
